

Terms of Trade and Booking Conditions

SURCHARGES

The fluctuation of the Australian Dollar against foreign exchange rates means currency surcharges may be applied to all Australian dollar prices indicated without notice. Any increase in taxes, levies (government, airline, body corporate) or other compulsory fees to be paid will be additional and notified as they arise.

EXCHANGE RATE ADJUSTMENTS

Fluctuations in exchange rates are beyond our control. We reserve the right to increase any fare prices at any time without prior notice to take into account exchange rate fluctuations. NOTE: Bookings paid in full are protected from increases due to currency fluctuation. Bookings can be paid in full at any time to provide protection from fare increases due to currency fluctuation.

AMENDMENTS

After deposits have been received, amendments to bookings will incur a $50 per person per amendment in addition to any fees charged by suppliers. Where a cruise line releases a promotional fare after you have booked, any transfer of that booking to a promotional fare on the same or new cruise is regarded as a cancellation of the first booking and subject to cancellation penalties. Some cruise lines have strict policies regarding rebooking a cruise on promotional rates.

Some low cost carriers have additional charges not included in the air ticket cost for luggage. These costs are beyond our control and cannot be pre-paid to us as ticketing agents for the airline.

Airline Luggage, Meal, Entertainment Direct Charges - Many airline carriers now charge for all baggage, meals and inflight entertainment on international flights. These fees and charges CANNOT be collected by the agent in advance. Each carrier and route has variations on prices and requirements. Please ask your consultant for a breakdown of applicable `pay direct` fees applicable to your booking and how to request and pay these services online.

AIRLINE SEATING AND SPECIAL MEALS

We recommend contacting the airlines directly for your seating and special meal requests to ensure that the airline has accurately noted your requirements. Airlines will often advise seat numbers but will not guarantee your seating until final boarding. Passengers are responsible for reconfirming all flights 72 hours prior to flight departure times.

AVAILABILITY

Advertised lead-in cruise and fly/cruise packages are subject to airline, hotel and cruise availability at time of booking. Where these lead in packages are not available, the cruise company may offer an alternative grade of cabin for your consideration. We strongly recommend early bookings to avoid disappointment. Pre and post cruise land packages may need to be adjusted to suit flight schedules and availability. No allocations are held with airlines or hotels.

PROMOTIONAL CRUISE FARES

Cruise lines on occasion will advertise special promotional fares which can be released and withdrawn at any time. These fares are for NEW bookings only, therefore any existing booking cancelled in order to rebook on these promotional fares will be subject to the loss of deposit or cancellation fees applicable to the existing booking. Promotional fare cabins are berthed at the cruise lines discretion, and no specific cabin or berth requests will be taken. Cabin numbers will be advised at embarkation and the cruise line reserves the right to change the allocated cabin at any time.

ON BOARD CREDIT

Please note on board credit offers for all cruise lines are non transferable, non exchangeable & non refundable for cash. They are redeemable onboard only in the currency used onboard the ship unless otherwise stated. They have no monetary value other than for the stated onboard service.

CABIN NUMBER

In many cases cruise lines will allocate passengers a cabin number at the time of booking or when your documentation is issued. This cabin number may be shown on the itinerary and also on the cruise documentation; however, this cabin number is never guaranteed by either the cruise line or SevenOceans/CruiseAbroad. Passengers may be relocated within the same grade/category by the cruise line at any time up to embarkation without notice. Please refer to the cruise line brochure or the "contract of passage" supplied with your cruise documentation.

CABIN GUARANTEE (GTY)

Where your client's reservation on a particular cruise has been confirmed as a 'cabin guarantee' other wise know as a GTY basis, the cruise line is accepting your reservation for that particular grade of accommodation or higher; rather than assigning a specific cabin number. Cabin numbers are confirmed either when cruise documents are issued or upon embarkation with a guarantee your clients will not be allocated any cabin BELOW this grade.

DINING REQUESTS

DINING/DINNER SITTING REQUESTS: Dining times are on a request basis only and are made on a first booked basis. Often the selected time will be on request only and waiting confirmation by the cruise line. Confirmation of your dining time is given by the cruise line upon embarkation of your cruise. Please refer to the cruise lines' terms and conditions in their brochure.

SHORE EXCURSIONS

We recommend that you pre-book your shore excursions prior to departure from Australia. Many cruise lines make their shore excursions available online prior to departure. If the cruise line offers this service, we will provide your cruise reference number so that passengers can access and book online. SevenOceans/Cruise Abroad is not responsible should any shore excursions be sold out or on waitlist prior to your departure. Cruise lines can release their shore excursions online at any time, so we strongly recommend checking their website regularly, or contact the cruise line concerned for an approx. release date.

DOCUMENTATION RELEASE

Passengers online Cruise Registration or Cruise Passenger Information form must be completed before the Cruise Line will release documents. Failure to complete this will cause delay. DOCUMENTS WILL NOT BE RELEASED WITHOUT A SIGNED BOOKING FORM.
